

The Departments of History and Philosophy and Religion invite you to meet, mingle, and have lunch with us at our

Open House!

It will take place at 429 Cooper Street (on the corner of 5th and Cooper Streets) on Wednesday, October 2, 2013, from 12:10pm-1:10pm.

Meet new faculty in history and philosophy, hear about upcoming events, and give us ideas about classes and topics that you'd be interested in seeing developed on campus. This is a great opportunity to get to know students and faculty and to ask questions about our programs and graduates. We hope you can join us!

Lunch and desserts will be provided!
